

Christopher P. AhmannAttorney*

633 17th Street, Suite 2200 Denver, CO 80202

t. (303) 292-2700

f. (303) 295-0414

e. cahmann@tamlegal.comOnline BiographyPractice Areas

Workers' Compensation Criminal Defense

EducationThe John Marshall Law
School, J.D. (1996)Colorado State University
B.A. (1992)Other ExperienceChristopher Ahmann, P.C.
*Sole Practitioner*Office of the Colorado State Public Defender
Trial Attorney

Christopher Ahmann graduated from Colorado State University in 1992 with a B.A. degree in History. He received his J.D. degree from John Marshall Law School in Chicago in 1996. Prior to joining TAM, he worked for three years with the Colorado State Public Defender's Office. From 1999 until 2006, he litigated as a sole practitioner focusing primarily on criminal defense.

Chris has a broad background in first chair trial and administrative hearing advocacy, having tried scores of cases to verdict and represented both individuals and corporations in criminal and administrative proceedings through final verdict or judgment.

At TAM, Mr. Ahmann defends employers in workers' compensation claims and assists in common carrier defense where criminal charges are threatened or pending. He is the firm's primary resource for legal counsel in any civil liability matters where criminal prosecution or misdemeanor citations are a component of the case.

Representative ClientsRetail, manufacturing and industrial, service providers, utilities, hospitality, common carriersBar and Court Admissions

State Courts of Colorado

Legal Memberships and ActivitiesColorado Bar Association
Arapahoe Bar Association
Colorado Criminal Defense Bar

Chris practices craft woodworking, having taken a one-time hobby to a non-law avocation. You can see his finished work turning exotic woods into artisanal writing instruments throughout TAM.